NAVY BELLE BRIDE OF ARMY ENGINEER

Miss Mary Regina Irwin Married to Lieut. Thomas B. Larkin in St. Matthew's.

A brilliant military wedding was solemnized at noon today in St. Matthew's Church, when Miss Mary Regina Irwin, daughter of Commander and Mrs. William Manning Itwin, U. S. N., became the bride of Lieut. Phomas B. Larkin, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A. The ceremony, which was performed by Father Buckey, was attended by a distinguished company, and was followed by a nuptial mass and later by as breakfast at the Washington Club. In the church the decorations of green and white were suggestive of springtime. Standards of Easter lilspringtime. Standards of Easter Hi-ies marked the pews reserved for rel-atives and close friends. The chancel was banked with palms, ferns, and Easter lilies, and clusters of illies filled the altar vases.

The wedding music was especially The wedding music was especially levely, the organ being accompanied by a string quartet. A charming program was given during the seating of the guests. The orchestra played softly during the ceremony and the nuptial mass, and at the offeriory "La Priere de St. Cecile." an orderteal conversation by Louis Longoriginal composition by Louis Lom-bard, was given. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin," and as they left Mendelssohn's "Wed-ding March" was played.

Father Escorts Bride The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father, who, like the bridegroom and his attendants, wore the full dress uniform of his rank. She wore a lovely gown of ivory Duchess satin, made with a draped skirt and a court train hung from below the shoulders. The corn-ers of the train were embroidered in pearls and the same pearl embroidery pearls and the same pearl embroidery was used on the bodies. The elbow sleeves of tulle were held by strands of pearls over the shoulders and a drapery of lovely old rose point lace finished the front of the bodice and fell in soft folds over the top of the train. She wore a tulle veil simply arranged and held by a wreath of erange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of lilles of the valley. Her only ornament was the bridegroom's gift, a necklace of three strands of pearls held at intervals by diamond feur-de-lis.

Miss Annie Irwin was maid of honor for her sister. Her frock was of fiesh-for her sister. Her frock was of flesh-colored satin, velled with creamcolored Margot lace. The skirt was draped, the bodice cut square at the neck and fashioned with elbow sleeves, and with this becoming contume she wore a picture hat of pale pink straw trimmed with pink ribbon streamers and a bunch of wee roses pastel shades. She carried a sheaf of Killarney roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Larner, Miss Ruth Larner, Miss Edith Blair, Miss Elizabeth Hamilton, all of Washington; Miss Margaret Ashley, of Toledo, and Miss Virginia Carr, of Albuquerque, wore gowns of white satin velled in Margot lace. The pastel shades of their bouquets of vari-colored sweet peas were repeated in their girdles, two of them wearing pais pink, two yellow, and two blue. Their hats of silver horsehair had and were trimmed with clusters of fones, in pastel three.

Lieutenant Hall Best Man.

Lieut, Blackburn Hall, U. S. A. was best man for Lieutenant Larkin, and the ushers were Harrison Bar-bour Irwin, brother of the bride, and Liaut. Frazer Tompkins, Lieut. Ernest Frederick Miller, Lieut. Donald Angus Davison, Lieut. Alexander Powell Cronkhite, Lieut. Layson Enslow At-kins, and Lieut. Paul Albert Hodgson, all classmates of the bridegroom at the Military Academy.

After the marriage ceremony, dur-ing which the bridal party stood in the chancel, grouped in a semi-circle about the bride, the bridesmaids and ushers took their places in the two front pews for the nuptial mass. As scended the chancel steps on their way from the church the ushers drew up in two lines and formed an archway with drawn sabers, beneath which they passed. Mrs. Irwin, mother of the bride, wore a handsome costume of biege georgette

Local Campaign Will Be Pressed Until Sum of $200,000 Is Raised.

Subscriptions to the local Red Cross patriotic fund have reached a total of $106,896.25. The figures were given out today by Chairman H. B. F. MacFarland, of the finance committee, who added that the campaign had just begun and would continue to be pressed with

All of the foregoing sum has been raised since April 3. On that date the committee set a limit of $50,000 for the first goal, but this was later fixed at $100,000. Now they are starting out for a $200,000 fund, which they say will be sorely needed before the way has they say will be sorely needed before the war has progressed very far.

Th finance committee held a meeting today, after which a statement was given out, which said in part:

"The committee wished the public to know that it has not authorized they benefit performances or exhibitions of any kind for the Red Cross fund. For the present, at least, it depends on the general desire to serve the country without reward. Many offers of benefit performances and exhibitions have been received and gratefully acknowledged, and filed for future use if needed."

APRIL SCHEDULE

Reduced Prices Anthracite Coal

We beg to announce that our schedule of reduced prices on Anthracite Coal will go into effect Monday, April 9th, 1917.

These prices will apply only on deliveries made during the month of April, 1917. We have no as-surances as to the cost of coal after May 1st, and therefore we can give no intimation of the prices that will prevail after that date. It would therefore seem wise to prepare now against this uncertainty by placing your order with us at once to the full extent of your bin capacity. We advise that you place no restrictions on delivery, but to take the coal as soon as we are able to deliver it and at the price prevailing when the delivery is made. Orders will be delivered in the order in which they are received, and any order or portions of orders remaining unfilled at the end of April will be delivered after that date at the prices prevalent at the time the delivery is made. If you delay now, you will not only have to pay a higher price later, but will probably have great difficulty in getting coal at any price. In our opinion, conditions in the mining regions and on the railroads will be as bad this coming year if not worse than they were during the winter through which we have just passed. Terms of payment: All invoices must be settled within thirty days after date of rendition, but a discount for prompt payment will be allowed on all invoices paid by the 10th of the month following the month in which the delivery is made.
